

Jomsom Muktinath Tour

Overview

Jomsom Muktinath Tour is a combined tour between Annapurna and Jomsom Region. Himalayan Social Journey prepared this exclusive tour package for the travelers who are enthusiasts to have two different tastes of tours through the same trip program. The two completely distinct regions like one are arid and the other is green. First, we begin our tour from wonderful Annapurna region and gradually enter into the arid Mustang region. The tour in the first begins to offer you a spectacular experience of cascading waterfall, lush green forest, beautiful traditional settlements then shifts to an arid landscape in the lap of Himalayas. The diverse ethnic culture and the way of their particular life make this trip more rewarding.

Highlights

- Guided tour of Heritage sites of Kathmandu Valley
- Sightseeing tour of Lakeside Pokhara
- Spectacular views of mountain and glacier
- Religiously important temple for Hindu and Buddhist i.e. Muktinath temple
- Majestic views of Annapurna
- Stunning Landscape of dryland in Jomsom & Muktinath temple

Journey Route to Jomsom Muktinath Tour

We begin this Jomsom-Muktinath trekking with an exciting sightseeing tour of UNESCO listed World Heritage sites in Kathmandu. Then, we have a short and scenic flight to Pokhara, the pristine city of lakes. Then, we drive in the Annapurna region and shift to the Mustang region. This shift offers a huge insight into two different region of Nepal. This tour also offers you an opportunity of trekking along the Kaligandaki gorge which is the deepest gorge on the earth. Besides, Muktinath is a popular Hindu pilgrimage site. One hundred eight water spouts and the natural flame which never goes out are the major highlights of Muktinath. Jomsom valley, an arid valley, is exhilarating to experience. We also have an opportunity to dip our body into the natural hot spring in Tatopani. The trek ends with our flight to Pokhara from Jomsom followed by a drive or flight to Kathmandu.
