

Kathmandu-Pokhara- Muktinath-Jhapa- Chitwan –Kathmandu (12 days Tour)

The 12 days of a package tour planned by Himalayan Social Journey to visit the most popular pilgrimage tours and one of the most visited destinations in Nepal are Muktinath tours with Kathmandu, Pokhara, Chitwan, and Japa Sightseeing. In the hearts of Buddhist and Hindu adherents, Muktinath carries a special heart. The temple is visited every year by the thousands of disciples of Lord Vishnu and Jwalamai, also regarded as the deity of fire. Every year, believers of Buddhism also visit the temple. The temple in Muktinath is illustrated in addition by shrines, sculptures, monuments, tombs, and carved stones.

You can make a typical Tharu village excursion in Chitwan, jungle walk in Chitwan National Park, jungle safari, ox cart, elephant breeding center, Jeep safari, paddling, etc.

When you're fortunate in the country, some of Nepal's endangered animals, including one-horned rhinoceros, Royal Bengali tigers, snow leopards, sloth bears, jungle cats, crocodiles, deers, monkeys, and many others might even be at home in Chitwan. In Nepal, over 60 mammal species, over 500 bird species are found.

Only the most diverse district in Nepal can be Jhapa. In the 126 caste-ethnic groups of the world, Jhapa comprises over 110 ethnic groups, including Santhal and Gangai (Gangai). The majority of marginalized indigenous tribes live in the southern part of the district, while Rajbanshi and Islamic communities live in the local community of Kachankawa and Kichakvadh. Each Jhapa culture is as dynamic as the next.

Festivals like Dadikado, Siruwa and Fagu are not just for Rajbanshis but also for Dashayen, Sorahaya and Faguwa.

Himalayan Social Journey introduced this touring package with outstanding tourist hubs of Nepal. Pokhara, Chitwan, Muktinath, and Jhapa in 12 days tour. This is for the people that are not only seeking adventure, natural beauty but also cultural diversity and immersion. A deeper look at the social and traditional counterparts of the plain region of Nepal.
