

Langtang Valley Trek

Overview

The third preferred trekking trail in Nepal, Langtang region is still unspoiled and mesmerizing trekking destination in Nepal. Despite the terrible hit of April 25, 2015, Earthquake, Langtang Region Trekking is always safe and enthralling. To convey this significant message to the travellers around the globe, Himalayan Social Journey coordinated the historical event 'Langtang Marathon' on 29th May 2016, in this region, and HSJ is facilitated as Langtang Goodwill Ambassador since then, HSJ has been working as 'The Goodwill Ambassador to Langtang Region'. We have been operating various trips in different regions of Nepal successfully but our special concern or simply put, we are specialized in organizing various exciting trip programs in Langtang Region. The Langtang Valley is simply breathtaking and Tamang Heritage and Gosainkunda are the cultural and spiritual tour and trekking in the lap of Himalaya. Travelling to Langtang and trekking with us, you are not only enjoying the beauty but also contributing to the socio-economic and cultural aspect of the livelihood of the people inhabiting there.

Journey to Langtang Valley

North of Kathmandu near the Tibetan border, your journey starts in the lower Langtang Valley, sandwiched between a Himalayan range to the north and snowy peaks to the south. You will trek through forests, past waterfalls, Sherpa villages, and farmlands, getting to know the locals, many of them are of Tibetan origin. Experience the Langtang Valley's spectacular views of the mountains and glaciers and explore the villages almost unto you, as the trails are far less populated in this area. This region is also famous for its rare and abundant fauna and flora. As you are heading through the national park, keep your eye out for our rare and interesting wildlife: red panda, snow leopard, monkeys, deer, pike, hawks, raptors and the national bird of Nepal, the colourful Danphe.
