Outline Itinerary (7 Days)

Day 1 : Arrive Paro International Airport

During the trip, on a clear day, you can see breathtaking views of the Himalayas, including the holy Jumolhari and Jichu Drake peaks in Bhutan. Pick-up from Paro airport and move to Thimphu (2,320 m), the capital city of Bhutan. On the road to Thimphu, on the other side of the river, you will see a temple run by the descendants of Dubthob Thangtong Gyalpo (the iron bridge builder). He was responsible for the construction of several iron bridges in Bhutan. After lunch, visit some of the capital's sights, according to the group's preferences, or have your own time to explore the area. Book in hotel & half-day local sightseeing, overnight in Thimphu.

Day 2 : Thimphu sightseeing

Upon tea and breakfast, travel to Thimphu, the capital of Bhutan. Check in hotel local sightseeing: King's Memorial Chorten (Monument) Chang Gangkha Monastery (one of the oldest monasteries in the valley) National Zoo (contains national animal takin) National Library (Saint Scripture Collections) Cultural Heritage Museum and Textile Museum School of Arts and Crafts (also known as the Painting School) and National Traditional Paper Factory (made from Daphne Plant) Overnight at Thimphu.
